Letter from Headquarters, Southern Army, No.G.S.I/439 dated the 12th October 1943

VERIFICATION OF RECRUITS: ADVERSE REPORTS.

I have the honour to state that all recruits for the Indian Army are verified before attestation. In the case of recruits from State territories, this is done by units forwarding verification rolls to the appropriate official, as per the attached Appendix.

2. As it is desired to collate information regarding undesirables endeavouring to enlist in the army, and to ensure that units act promptly, I have the honour to request that you will arrange for the official concerned to forward adverse reports vide para 3 below, to this H.Q. direct addressed as per margin, and NOT direct to the Unit concerned as heretofore.

3. For these purposes only reports which are adverse from the point of view of anti-government activities are required. Adverse reports by reasons of ordinary crime unconnected with political activities should be sent to units in the normal way.

4. The request in paragraph 2 applies to such adverse verifications in respect of all recruits whose homes are in your State irrespective of whether the unit requesting the verification is located in this army area or not.
